

POLICYHOLDER DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
UNDER THE TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT

The Insured is hereby notified that under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, as amended, (the "Act"), the Insured has a right to purchase insurance coverage for losses arising out of an Act of Terrorism, which is defined in the Act as an act certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in concurrence with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General of the United States, (i) to be an act of terrorism, (ii) to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to (A) human life; (B) property; or (C) infrastructure, (iii) to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside of the United States in case of an air carrier or vessel or the premises of a U.S. mission and (iv) to have been committed by an individual or individuals as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion. The Insured should read the Act for a complete description of its coverage. The Secretary's decision to certify or not to certify an event as an Act of Terrorism covered by the Act is final and not subject to review.

Coverage provided by this policy for losses caused by an Act of Terrorism may be partially reimbursed by the United States Government under a formula established by federal law. Under this formula, the United States Government will generally pay 85% of terrorism losses exceeding a statutorily established deductible that must be met by the Insurer, and which deductible is based on a percentage of the Insurer's direct earned premiums for the year preceding the Act of Terrorism.

Be advised that there is a $100 billion cap on all losses resulting from Acts of Terrorism. If aggregate insured losses attributable to Acts of Terrorism exceed $100 billion in a Program Year (January 1 through December 31), the United States Government shall not make any payment for any portion of the amount of such loss that exceeds $100 billion. If aggregate insured losses attributable to Acts of Terrorism exceed $100 billion in a Program Year and the Insurer has met its deductible under the Act, the Insurer shall not be liable for payment of any portion of the losses that exceeds $100 billion, and in such case, insured losses up to that amount are subject to pro rata allocation in accordance with procedures established by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Coverage for "insured losses" as defined in the Act is subject to the coverage terms, conditions, amounts and limits in this policy applicable to losses arising from events other than Acts of Terrorism.

The Insured should know that under federal law, the Insured is not required to purchase coverage for losses caused by Acts of Terrorism.
